Statham's Taste of Home

EASY FRIED SUMMER SQUASH

- 1 CUP PLAIN CORNMEAL
- 1 1/2 TSP SALT (side of extra salt for taste/sprinkling)
- 2-3 MD YELLOW AND/OR ZUCCHINI SQUASH
- 1 1/2 TO 2 CUPS VEGETABLE OIL

Drop squash slices into the bag with the cornmeal; seal bag & shake vigorously; set aside for at least an hour shaking gently every 10 to 15 minutes. (This is necessary because the squash will exude some of its juice, and the juice helps the cornmeal to stick to the squash.) After the squash has been in the cornmeal for an hour or two, pour oil into large skillet. Heat oil on stovetop over medium-high heat. Add a layer of squash to cover bottom of skillet. Fry squash, turning frequently until golden brown on both sides. You may need to lower heat slightly towards end of first batch. Remove squash from skillet to paper towels after browning. Serve immediately. Any leftover cornmeal mixture may be stored in refrigerator for the next time you fry squash, okra, etc.

Monday, July 4th in observance of our
